Instructions for Flash Presentations

Time limit: Your Flash Presentation shall not exceed 3 minutes. There will be sessions in the programme dedicated to the flash presentations: several presentations will be played in a row, then there will be a Q&A sessions for all of them

Sending us your Flash Presentation: Please follow the provided template to prepare the title page of your Flash Presentation. Please note that your Flash presentation shall not exceed 6 slides (including the title page). Please send the pdf of your Flash presentation to verena.beck@acib.at before Nov. 1ˢᵗ, 2021. All the Flash presentations will be available online for the participants during the conference.

You shall organize the Flash Presentation in a way that it is clear, orderly, and self-explanatory. The Flash Presentation must cover the same content as the abstract. You shall label different elements as 1, 2, 3, or A, B, C. This will make it easier for a viewer to follow your display. You shall design the individual sections of your Flash Presentation so that they can be quickly read. Please, avoid large blocks of text and long sentences.

You shall place the title of your paper clearly at the top of the Flash Presentation to allow viewers to easily identify your paper. Indicate the authors' names and address information in order to allow interested viewers to contact you for more information.

You shall avoid abbreviations, acronyms, and jargon. Avoid fuzzy images; make sure all graphics are high-resolution and easily visible. You shall make sure that there is enough contrast between the colour of the text and the presentation's background.

All Flash presentations shall be in English. You shall not use special characters (e.g. «, Ö, Ø, ñ, ε , ®, ý, }, {, etc.) to name your file. Do not use passwords or encryption with your files.

It is the author's responsibility to ensure that each part of the slide show (figures, tables, images, etc.) is free of any third-party rights and is cited correctly.
